28 laws. All section references are to the Business and Professions Code unless otherwise indicated.

STATUTORY PROVISIONS

1
2 4. Section 490 states, in pertinent part:

3 "(a) In addition to any other action that a board is permitted to take against a licensee, a
4 board may suspend or revoke a license on the ground that the licensee has been convicted of a
5 crime, if the crime is substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of the business
6 or profession for which the license was issued.

7 "(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a board may exercise any authority to 8 discipline a licensee for conviction of a crime that is independent of the authority granted under
9 subdivision (a) only if the crime is substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties
10 of the business or profession for which the licensee's license was issued.

11 "(c) A conviction within the meaning of this section means a plea or verdict of guilty or a
12 conviction following a plea of nolo contendere. Any action that a board is permitted to take 13 following the establishment of a conviction may be taken when the time for appeal has elapsed, or 14 the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal, or when an order granting probation is 15 made suspending the imposition of sentence, irrespective of a subsequent order under the 16 provisions of Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code."

17 5. Section 4300 provides in pertinent part, that every license issued by the Boards is 18 subject to discipline, including suspension or revocation.

19 6. Section 4300.1 states:

20 "The expiration, cancellation, forfeiture, or suspension of a board-issued license by 21 operation of law or by order or decision of the board or a court of law, the placement of a license
22 on a retired status, or the voluntary surrender of a license by a licensee shall not deprive the board
23 of jurisdiction to commence or proceed with any investigation of, or action or disciplinary 24 proceeding against, the licensee or to render a decision suspending or revoking the license."

25 7. Section 4301 states, in pertinent part:

"(l) The conviction of a crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions, and duties of a licensee under this chapter. The record of conviction of a violation of Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 801) of Title 21 of the United States Code regulating controlled substances or of a violation of the statutes of this state regulating controlled substances or dangerous drugs shall be conclusive evidence of unprofessional conduct. In all other cases, the record of conviction shall be conclusive evidence only of the fact that the conviction occurred. The board may inquire into the circumstances surrounding the commission of the crime, in order to fix the degree of discipline or, in the case of a conviction not involving controlled substances or dangerous drugs, to determine if the conviction is of an offense substantially related to the qualifications, functions, and duties of a licensee under this chapter.
