4. Code section 4300 states, in pertinent part:

(a) Every license issued may be suspended or revoked.

(b) The board shall discipline the holder of any license issued by the board, whose default has been entered or whose case has been heard by the board and found guilty, by any of the following methods:

(1) Suspending judgment.

(2) Placing him or her upon probation.

(3) Suspending his or her right to practice for a period not exceeding one year.

(4) Revoking his or her license.

(5) Taking any other action in relation to disciplining him or her as the board in its discretion may deem proper . . .

5. Code section 118, subdivision (b), states:

The suspension, expiration, or forfeiture by operation of law of a license issued by a board in the department, or its suspension, forfeiture, or cancellation by order of the board or by order of a court of law, or its surrender without the written consent of the board, shall not, during any period in which it may be renewed, restored, reissued, or reinstated, deprive the board of its authority to institute or continue a disciplinary proceeding against the licensee upon any ground provided by law or to enter an order suspending or revoking the license or otherwise taking disciplinary action against the licensee on any such ground.

6. Code section 4301 states, in pertinent part:

The board shall take action against any holder of a license who is guilty of unprofessional conduct or whose license has been procured by fraud or misrepresentation or issued by mistake. Unprofessional conduct shall include, but is not limited to, any of the following:

3 if the conviction is of an offense substantially related to the qualifications,
4 functions, and duties of a licensee under this chapter. A plea or verdict of guilty
5 or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere is deemed to be a conviction
6 within the meaning of this provision. The board may take action when the time
7 for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal
8 or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of 9 sentence, irrespective of a subsequent order under Section 1203.4 of the Penal
10 Code allowing the person to withdraw his or her plea of guilty and to enter a plea
11 of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation,
12 information, or indictment . . .

13 7. Penal Code section 484, subdivision (a), states, in pertinent part, that every 14 person who shall feloniously steal, take, carry, lead, or drive away the personal property of 15 another, or who shall fraudulently appropriate property which has been entrusted to him or her, is 16 guilty of theft.

17 Cost Recovery

18 8. Code section 125.3 states, in pertinent part, that the Board may request the 19 administrative law judge to direct a licentiate found to have committed a violation or violations
20 of the licensing act to pay a sum not to exceed the reasonable costs of the investigation and
