In addition, on or about April 21, 2009, the Certified Mail Return Receipt card was returned to the Department of Justice, dated April 20, 2009 for receipt of the Accusation materials, with what appears to be Respondent's signature. A copy of the Certified Mail Return Receipt card is included with the documents in exhibit A.
 - 5. Government Code section 11506 states, in pertinent part:
- (c) The respondent shall be entitled to a hearing on the merits if the respondent files a notice of defense, and the notice shall be deemed a specific denial of all parts of the accusation not expressly admitted. Failure to file a notice of defense shall constitute a waiver of respondent's right to a hearing, but the agency in its discretion may nevertheless grant a hearing.
- 6. Respondent failed to file a Notice of Defense within 15 days after service of the Accusation, and therefore waived his right to a hearing on the merits of Accusation No. 3252.

- (a) If the respondent either fails to file a notice of defense or to appear at the hearing, the agency may take action based upon the respondent's express admissions or upon other evidence and affidavits may be used as evidence without any notice to respondent.

The exact types and quantities of drugs taken by Respondent are unknown, but by his own admission included thefts of at least multiple bottles and/or doses of the drugs Vicodin, Xanax, OxyContin, Valium, Morphine and Duragesic (fentanyl) patches (or generic equivalent(s)).

- 36. Respondent admitted to hiding bottles of the drugs on his person in order to take them from the Walgreens pharmacy. Following his plea, Respondent was sentenced on or about September 11, 2007 as follows: Sixteen (16) months state prison, with that sentence suspended for Respondent to enter and complete a six (6) month residential treatment program. If he successfully completes the treatment program, he will be placed on five (5) year felony probation, and upon his payment of full restitution to Walgreens the charge will be retroactively reduced to a misdemeanor.
