4 Business and Professions Code unless otherwise indicated.

5 4. Section 118, subdivision (b), of the Code provides that the suspension, expiration,

A plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere is deemed to be a conviction within the meaning of this provision. The board may take action when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence, irrespective of a subsequent order under Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code allowing the person to withdraw his or her plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information, or indictment.

(4) Commission of any act which, if done by a licentiate of the business or profession in question, would be grounds for suspension or revocation of license.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this code, the provisions of this division shall govern the suspension and revocation of licenses on grounds specified in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a).

(c) A license shall not be denied, suspended, or revoked on the grounds of a lack of good moral character or any similar ground relating to an applicant's character, reputation, personality, or habits.

8. Section 482 of the Code states:

Each board under the provisions of this code shall develop criteria to evaluate the rehabilitation of a person when:

Each board shall take into account all competent evidence of rehabilitation furnished by the applicant or licensee.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in a proceeding conducted by a board within the department pursuant to law to deny an application for a license or to suspend or revoke a license or otherwise take disciplinary action against a person who holds a license, upon the ground that the applicant or the licensee has been convicted of a crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions, and duties of the licensee in question, the record of conviction of the

1 crime shall be conclusive evidence of the fact that the conviction occurred, but only of that fact,
2 and the board may inquire into the circumstances surrounding the commission of the crime in
3 order to fix the degree of discipline or to determine if the conviction is substantially related to the 4 qualifications, functions, and duties of the licensee in question.

5 As used in this section, "license" includes "certificate," "permit," "authority," and 6 "registration."

7 11. Section 4313 of the Code states:

8 In determining whether to grant an application for licensure or whether to discipline or 9 reinstate a license, the board shall give consideration to evidence of rehabilitation. However,
10 public protection shall take priority over rehabilitation and, where evidence of rehabilitation and 11 public protection are in conflict, public protection shall take precedence.

12 REGULATIONS

13 12. California Code of Regulations, title 16, section 1769(b) states:

14 When considering the suspension or revocation of a facility or personal license on the 15 ground that the licensee or the registrant has been convicted of a crime, the board in evaluating 16 the rehabilitation of such person and her present eligibility for a license will consider the 17 following:

18 (1) The nature and severity of the act(s) or offense(s).

19 (2) Total criminal record.

20 (3) Time that has elapsed since the commission of the act(s) or offense(s).

21 (4) Whether the licensee has complied with all terms of parole, probation, restitution, or 22 any other sanctions lawfully imposed against the licensee.

23 (5) Evidence, if any, of rehabilitation submitted by the licensee.

24 13. California Code of Regulations, title 16, section 1770, states:

25 For the purpose of denial, suspension, or revocation of a personal or facility license
26 pursuant to Division 1.5 (commencing with Section 475) of the Business and Professions Code, a
27 crime or act shall be considered substantially related to the qualifications, functions or duties of a
28 licensee or registrant if to a substantial degree it evidences present or potential unfitness of a

1 licensee or registrant to perform the functions authorized by his license or registration in a manner
2 consistent with the public health, safety, or welfare.

3 COST RECOVERY

4 14. Section 125.3 of the Code provides, in pertinent part, that the 5 Board/Registrar/Director may request the administrative law judge to direct a licentiate found to 6 have committed a violation or violations of the licensing act to pay a sum not to exceed the 7 reasonable costs of the investigation and enforcement of the case.

8 FACTS

9 15. On or about March 5, 2009, in a criminal proceeding entitled People v. Jena Castillo
10 Gabriel, in the Superior Court of California, County of San Diego East County Division, Case
11 No. CE287776, Respondent was convicted by her plea of guilty to violation of Penal Code
12 section 487(a) (grand theft of personal property), reduced to a misdemeanor pursuant to the plea
13 agreement and payment of full restitution to the victim in the amount of $2,100.00.

14 16. Respondent was sentenced to three years of summary probation, one day in the 15 county jail with a credit of one day for time served, payment of fines and fees in the amount of 16 $1,068.00, and probation costs in the amount of $1,127.00. Respondent was ordered to stay away
17 from all Target stores.

18 17. The circumstances of the crime are that on or about January 28, 2009, while 19 Respondent was working as a Pharmacy Technician at Target in El Cajon, an officer from the El 20 Cajon Police Department was dispatched to the store to investigate a report of grand theft from 21 the Target's Loss Prevention. The officer spoke with the Loss Prevention Agent (LPA), who 22 explained that on December 22, 2008, he was alerted by a central sales auditor of cash shortages
23 appearing on the pharmacy registers in the store. The LPA opened an investigation and began 24 monitoring activity there, focusing on an employee (Respondent) who was present when these 25 losses were occurring. The LPA began observing videotape of her actions, and after placing a
26 covert camera at the registers, was able to watch on videotape as Respondent took money over
27 numerous days and stole this money from the store. On January 28, 2009, the LPA interviewed
28

1 Respondent, and after she admitted to taking the money, placed her under citizen's arrest for
2 grand theft and contacted the police.

3 18. The LPA told the police officer that he documented 15 cases where he observed
4 Respondent take various amounts of money from the register and place the cash in her smock
5 pocket and not return the money. The LPA told the police officer that the registers had 6 approximately 90 instances where they were short amounts of money which were nearly always
7 $20.00. These thefts amounted to approximately $2,100.00 in cash. The LPA told the police
8 officer that during his interview with Respondent, she confessed to stealing the approximately 9 $2,100.00 that the LPA calculated.

10 19. The arresting police officer's report states that upon questioning, Respondent was 11 advised of her Miranda rights, waived them, and Respondent advised the officer that she and her 12 husband made enough money to meet their bills and obligations, and that there was no reason for 13 taking the money. Respondent told the officer that the money was all probably currently in her
14 bank account. Respondent admitted to the officer that she knew what she was doing was wrong,
15 and that she also knew that because she had no real reason for needing the money, she should not 16 be doing it. Respondent told the officer that she kept trying to stop taking the money.

17 20. Respondent was arrested and charged with a violation of Penal Code sections 508
18 (fraudulent appropriation by clerk, agent or employee) and 487(a) (grand theft of personal 19 property).

20 FIRST CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

23 that she was convicted of a crime substantially related to the duties, functions, and qualifications

3 25. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under Code section 4301(p), in that she
4 committed acts which, if she had committed before she were issued her Pharmacy Technician
5 License, would have warranted the denial of her application for licensure in that she stole
6 $2,100.00 from her employer, as described in paragraphs 15-20, above.
