Dear Customer:

Hospira, Inc., a Pfizer company, is recalling to the user level the above referenced lot of Bleomycin for Injection, USP, due to a confirmed customer report for the presence of glass particulate within a single vial. Pfizer completed a Health Hazard Assessment, which concluded the use of impacted product has an unlikely probability of occurrence of adverse events such as injection site reaction, localized vein inflammation or phlebitis, thrombus, embolus and/or end-organ granuloma or life-threatening blood clot events.
