JURISDICTION

- 3. This Accusation is brought before the Board of Pharmacy (Board), Department of Consumer Affairs, under the authority of the following laws. All section references are to the Business and Professions Code (Code) unless otherwise indicated.
- 4. Code section 4300, subdivision (a) provides that every license issued by the Board may be suspended or revoked.
 - 5. Code section 4300.1 states:

The expiration, cancellation, forfeiture, or suspension of a board-issued license by operation of law or by order or decision of the board or a court of law, the placement of a license on a retired status, or the voluntary surrender of a license by a licensee shall not deprive the board of jurisdiction to commence or proceed with any investigation of, or action or disciplinary proceeding against, the licensee or to render a decision suspending or revoking the license.

STATUTORY PROVISIONS

6. Code section 482 states:

Each board under the provisions of this code shall develop criteria to evaluate the rehabilitation of a person when:

- (a) Considering the denial of a license by the board under Section 480; or
- (b) Considering suspension or revocation of a license under Section 490.

Each board shall take into account all competent evidence of rehabilitation furnished by the applicant or licensee.

- 7. Code section 490 provides, in pertinent part, that a board may suspend or revoke a license on the ground that the licensee has been convicted of a crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of the business or profession for which the license was issued.
 - 8. Code section 493 states:

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, successful completion of any diversion program under the Penal Code, or successful completion of an alcohol and drug problem assessment program under Article 5 (commencing with Section 23249.50) of Chapter 12 of Division 11 of the Vehicle Code, shall not prohibit any agency established under Division 2 (commencing with Section 500) of this code, or any initiative act referred to in that division, from taking disciplinary action against a licensee or from denying a license for professional misconduct, notwithstanding that evidence of that misconduct may be recorded in a record pertaining to an arrest. 9. Section 4301 of the Code states:

The board shall take action against any holder of a license who is guilty of unprofessional conduct or whose license has been procured by fraud or misrepresentation or issued by mistake. Unprofessional conduct shall include, but is not limited to, any of the following:

(f) The commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or corruption, whether the act is committed in the course of relations as a licensee or otherwise, and whether the act is a felony or misdemeanor or not.

(1) The conviction of a crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions, and duties of a licensee under this chapter. The record of conviction of a violation of Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 801) of Title 21 of the United States Code regulating controlled substances or of a violation of the statutes of this state regulating controlled substances or dangerous drugs shall be conclusive evidence of unprofessional conduct. In all other cases, the record of conviction shall be conclusive evidence only of the fact that the conviction occurred. The board may inquire into the circumstances surrounding the commission of the crime, in order to fix the degree of discipline or, in the case of a conviction not involving controlled substances or dangerous drugs, to determine if the conviction is of an offense substantially related to the qualifications, functions, and duties of a licensee under this chapter. A plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere is deemed to be a conviction within the meaning of this provision. The board may take action when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence, irrespective of a subsequent order under Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code allowing the person to withdraw his or her plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information, or indictment.

Courthouse, Central County Division Case Number SCD257404, Respondent was convicted on her plea of guilty to violating Penal Code (PC) section 487, subdivision (a), grand theft of personal property, a felony. A felony charge for violation of PC section 496, subdivision (a). receiving stolen property, was dismissed under a plea bargain.

- As a result of the conviction, on September 30, 2014, Respondent was sentenced to be committed to the custody of the San Diego County Sheriff for nine days, with credit for five days actually served and four days for good behavior, and granted three years felony probation under drug and violence program terms. Respondent was ordered to render ten days of service under the public service program and attend and successfully complete an antitheft and cognitive behavioral counseling program. Respondent was also ordered to pay fees, fines, assessments, and victim restitution and to not be within 100 feet of the victim establishment.
- The facts that led to the discipline are that on June 5, 2014, while utilizing her security guard registration, employed by a private patrol operator, and assigned as a security guard at a Cox Communications facility in San Diego, California, Respondent entered a secured interior warehouse and took four tablet computers (IPads). Respondent then took the IPads to her residence and gifted them to her husband, her two children, and herself. On June 6, 2014, a Cox Communications investigator, utilizing an electronic software, traced the exact location of the IPads, which corresponded to Respondent's residential address. A review of Cox Communications access control records showed that Respondent accessed the warehouse on three occasions: June 1, 2014 at 6:46 p.m., June 4, 2014 at 7:26 p.m., and June 4, 2014 at 7:42 p.m. Respondent had card access to the warehouse but was authorized access only in cases of emergency. On July 17, 2014, detectives from the San Diego Police Department executed a search warrant and located inside Respondent's residence the four missing IPads. Respondent was arrested for burglary and possession of stolen property. Thereafter, Respondent was booked and transported to the Las Colinas Women's Detention Facility.

SECOND CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Unprofessional Conduct - Commission of Any Act Involving Moral Turpitude, Dishonesty, Fraud, Deceit, or Corruption)

14. Respondent has subjected her pharmacy technician registration to discipline under Code section 4301, subdivision (f), in that she committed acts involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, fraud, deceit, and corruption when she stole the four IPads from a commercial facility that was assigned to her by her employer to protect from losses, including theft, as described in paragraph 13, above, and incorporated herein by this reference.

DISCIPLINARY CONSIDERATIONS

15. To determine the degree of discipline, if any, to be imposed on Respondent, Complainant alleges that on March 24, 2003, Respondent was arrested for violating Health and Safety Code sections 11378, possession of a controlled substance for sale, and 11370.1, subdivision (a), possession of a controlled substance while armed. As a result, the Board issued Citation Number CI 2002 25267 and assessed a fine of $500.00, which she paid.

PRAYER

WHEREFORE, Complainant requests that a hearing be held on the matters herein alleged, and that following the hearing, the Board of Pharmacy issue a decision:

- 1. Revoking or suspending Pharmacy Technician Registration Number TCH 42065, issued to Corina M. Perez;
- 2. Ordering Corina M. Perez to pay the Board of Pharmacy the reasonable costs of the investigation and enforcement of this case, pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 125.3; and
 - 3. Taking such other and further action as deemed necessary and proper.
