23 Pharmacy.

24 2. On or about September 14, 1999, the Board of Pharmacy (Board) issued
25 Pharmacy Technician Registration No. TCH 30754 to Respondent. The registration will expire
26 on November 30, 2008.

27 3. On or about September 12, 2006, Mary Anne Snyder, an employee of the 28 Department of Justice, served by Certified and First Class Mail a copy of the Accusation No.

1 2990, Statement to Respondent, Notice of Defense, Request for Discovery, and Government
2 Code sections 11507.5, 11507.6, and 11507.7 to Respondent's address of record with the Board,
3 which was and is P.O. Box 575, Citrus Heights, CA 95621. Also, on or about November 17,
4 2006, Ms. Snyder, served by Certified and First Class Mail a copy of the Accusation No. 2990,
5 Statement to Respondent, Notice of Defense, Request for Discovery, and Government Code
6 sections 11507.5, 11507.6, and 11507.7 to Respondent's second address of record with the 7 Board, which was and is 2916 Arcade Lake Lane, Citrus Heights, CA 95621. A copy of the 8 Accusation, the related documents, and Declaration of Service are attached as Exhibit A, and 9 are incorporated herein by reference.

10 4. Service of the Accusation was effective as a matter of law under the 11 provisions of Government Code section 11505, subdivision (c).

12 5. On or about September 28, 2006, the aforementioned documents from 13 Post Office Box 575, Citrus Heights, CA 95621, were returned by the U.S. Postal Service
14 marked, "Unclaimed." On or about November 21, 2006, the aforementioned documents from

17 of the postal returned documents are attached hereto as Exhibit B, and are incorporated herein by 18 reference.

19 6. Government Code section 11506 states, in pertinent part:

20 "(c) The respondent shall be entitled to a hearing on the merits if the respondent
21 files a notice of defense, and the notice shall be deemed a specific denial of all parts of the 22 accusation not expressly admitted. Failure to file a notice of defense shall constitute a waiver of 23 respondent's right to a hearing, but the agency in its discretion may nevertheless grant a hearing."

24 7. Respondent failed to file a Notice of Defense within 15 days after service
25 upon her of the Accusation, and therefore waived her right to a hearing on the merits of 26 Accusation No. 2990.

27 ///

28 ///

8. California Government Code section 11520 states, in pertinent part:

"(a) If the respondent either fails to file a notice of defense or to appear at the hearing, the agency may take action based upon the respondent's express admissions or upon other evidence and affidavits may be used as evidence without any notice to respondent."

9. Pursuant to its authority under Government Code section 11520, the Board finds Respondent is in default. The Board will take action without further hearing and, based on Respondent's express admissions by way of default and the evidence before it, contained in exhibits A, B and C, finds that the allegations in Accusation No. 2990 are true.

10. The total costs for investigation and enforcement are $1,788.00 as of November 13, 2006. The cost certification is attached hereto as Exhibit C, and is incorporated herein by reference.

TO RESPONDENT:

Enclosed is a copy of the Accusation that has been filed with the Board of

Unless a written request for a hearing signed by you or on your behalf is delivered or mailed to the Board, represented by Deputy Attorney General Jana L. Tuton, within fifteen
(15) days after a copy of the Accusation was personally served on you or mailed to you, you will

21 NOTICE REGARDING STIPULATED SETTLEMENTS

22 It may be possible to avoid the time, expense and uncertainties involved in an
23 administrative hearing by disposing of this matter through a stipulated settlement. A stipulated
24 settlement is a binding written agreement between you and the government regarding the matters
25 charged and the discipline to be imposed. Such a stipulation would have to be approved by the 26 Board of Pharmacy but, once approved, it would be incorporated into a final order.

27 Any stipulation must be consistent with the Board's established disciplinary
28 guidelines; however, all matters in mitigation or aggravation will be considered. A copy of the

1 Board's Disciplinary Guidelines will be provided to you on your written request to the state
2 agency bringing this action.

SECTION 11507.6: Request for discovery

After initiation of a proceeding in which a respondent or other party is entitled to a hearing on the merits, a party, upon written request made to another party, prior to the hearing and within 30 days after service by the agency of the initial pleading or within 15 days after the service of an additional pleading, is entitled to (1) obtain the names and addresses of witnesses to the extent known to the other party, including, but not limited to, those intended to be called to testify at the hearing, and (2) inspect and make a copy of any of the following in the possession or custody or under the control of the other party:

(a) A statement of a person, other than the respondent, named in the initial administrative pleading, or in any additional pleading, when it is claimed that the act or omission of the respondent as to this person is the basis for the administrative proceeding;

(b) A statement pertaining to the subject matter of the proceeding made by any party to another party or person;

(c) Statements of witnesses then proposed to be called by the party and of other persons having personal knowledge of the acts, omissions or events which are the basis for the proceeding, not included in (a) or (b) above;

(d) All writings, including, but not limited to, reports of mental, physical and blood examinations and things which the party then proposes to offer in evidence;

(e) Any other writing or thing which is relevant and which would be admissible in evidence;

For the purpose of this section, "statements" include written statements by the person signed or otherwise authenticated by him or her, stenographic, mechanical, electrical or other recordings, or transcripts thereof, of oral statements by the person, and written reports or summaries of these oral statements.

Nothing in this section shall authorize the inspection or copying of any writing or thing which is privileged from disclosure by law or otherwise made confidential or protected as the attorney's work product.

SECTION 11507.7: Petition to compel discovery; Order; Sanctions

(a) Any party claiming the party's request for discovery pursuant to Section 11507.6 has not been complied with may serve and file with the administrative law judge a motion to compel discovery, naming as respondent the party refusing or failing to comply with Section 11507.6. The motion shall state facts showing the respondent party failed or refused to comply with Section 11507.6, a description of the matters sought to be discovered, the reason or reasons why the matter is discoverable under that section, that a reasonable and good faith attempt to contact the respondent for an informal resolution of the issue has been made, and the ground or grounds of respondent's refusal so far as known to the moving party.

(b) The motion shall be served upon respondent party and filed within 15 days after the respondent party first evidenced failure or refusal to comply with Section 11507.6 or within 30 days after request was made and the party has failed to reply to the request, or within another time provided by stipulation, whichever period is longer.

(c) The hearing on the motion to compel discovery shall be held within 15 days after the motion is made, or a later time that the administrative law judge may on the judge's own motion for good cause determine. The respondent party shall have the right to serve and file a written answer or other response to the motion before or at the time of the hearing.

(d) Where the matter sought to be discovered is under the custody or control of the respondent party and the respondent party asserts that the matter is not a discoverable matter under the provisions of Section 11507.6, or is privileged against disclosure under those provisions, the administrative law judge may order lodged with it matters provided in subdivision (b) of Section 915 of the Evidence Code and examine the matters in accordance with its provisions.

(f) Unless otherwise stipulated by the parties, the administrative law judge shall no later than 15 days after the hearing make its order denying or granting the motion. The order shall be in writing setting forth the matters the moving party is entitled to discover under Section 11507.6. A copy of the order shall forthwith be served by mail by the administrative law judge upon the parties. Where the order grants the motion in whole or in part, the order shall not become effective until 10 days after the date the order is served. Where the order denies relief to the moving party, the order shall be effective on the date it is served.

Respondent.

Case No. 2990

STATEMENT TO RESPONDENT

[Gov. Code §§ 11504, 11505(b)]

TO RESPONDENT:

Enclosed is a copy of the Accusation that has been filed with the Board of Pharmacy of the Department of Consumer Affairs (Board), and which is hereby served on you.

Unless a written request for a hearing signed by you or on your behalf is delivered or mailed to the Board, represented by Deputy Attorney General Jana L. Tuton, within fifteen
(15) days after a copy of the Accusation was personally served on you or mailed to you, you will be deemed to have waived your right to a hearing in this matter and the Board may proceed upon the Accusation without a hearing and may take action thereon as provided by law.

The request for hearing may be made by delivering or mailing one of the enclosed forms entitled "Notice of Defense," or by delivering or mailing a Notice of Defense as provided in section 11506 of the Government Code, to

Jana L. Tuton
Deputy Attorney General
1300 I Street, Suite 125
P.O. Box 944255
Sacramento, California 94244-2550.

1 You may, but need not, be represented by counsel at any or all stages of these
2 proceedings.

3 The enclosed Notice of Defense, if signed and filed with the Board, shall be
4 deemed a specific denial of all parts of the Accusation, but you will not be permitted to raise any 5 objection to the form of the Accusation unless you file a further Notice of Defense as provided in
6 section 11506 of the Government Code within fifteen (15) days after service of the Accusation 7 on you.

8 If you file any Notice of Defense within the time permitted, a hearing will be held
9 on the charges made in the Accusation.

10 The hearing may be postponed for good cause. If you have good cause, you are 11 obliged to notify the Office of Administrative Hearings, 560 J Street, Suite 340/360, Sacramento, 12 California 95814, within ten (10) working days after you discover the good cause. Failure to 13 notify the Office of Administrative Hearings within ten (10) days will deprive you of a 14 postponement.

15 Copies of sections 11507.5, 11507.6, and 11507.7 of the Government Code are 16 enclosed.

17 If you desire the names and addresses of witnesses or an opportunity to inspect
18 and copy the items mentioned in section 11507.6 of the Government Code in the possession,
19 custody or control of the Board you may send a Request for Discovery to the above designated
20 Deputy Attorney General.

21 NOTICE REGARDING STIPULATED SETTLEMENTS

22 It may be possible to avoid the time, expense and uncertainties involved in an
23 administrative hearing by disposing of this matter through a stipulated settlement. A stipulated
24 settlement is a binding written agreement between you and the government regarding the matters
25 charged and the discipline to be imposed. Such a stipulation would have to be approved by the
26 Board of Pharmacy but, once approved, it would be incorporated into a final order.

27 Any stipulation must be consistent with the Board's established disciplinary
28 guidelines; however, all matters in mitigation or aggravation will be considered. A copy of the

1 Board's Disciplinary Guidelines will be provided to you on your written request to the state
2 agency bringing this action.

3 If you are interested in pursuing this alternative to a formal administrative hearing,
4 or if you have any questions, you or your attorney should contact Deputy Attorney General Jana
5 L. Tuton at the earliest opportunity.

COPY OF GOVERNMENT CODE SECTIONS 11507.5, 11507.6 AND 11507.7
PROVIDED PURSUANT TO GOVERNMENT CODE SECTIONS 11504 AND 11505

SECTION 11507.5: Exclusivity of discovery provisions

The provisions of Section 11507.6 provide the exclusive right to and method of discovery as to any proceeding governed by this chapter.

SECTION 11507.6: Request for discovery

After initiation of a proceeding in which a respondent or other party is entitled to a hearing on the merits, a party, upon written request made to another party, prior to the hearing and within 30 days after service by the agency of the initial pleading or within 15 days after the service of an additional pleading, is entitled to (1) obtain the names and addresses of witnesses to the extent known to the other party, including, but not limited to, those intended to be called to testify at the hearing, and (2) inspect and make a copy of any of the following in the possession or custody or under the control of the other party:

(a) A statement of a person, other than the respondent, named in the initial administrative pleading, or in any additional pleading, when it is claimed that the act or omission of the respondent as to this person is the basis for the administrative proceeding;

(b) A statement pertaining to the subject matter of the proceeding made by any party to another party or person;

(c) Statements of witnesses then proposed to be called by the party and of other persons having personal knowledge of the acts, omissions or events which are the basis for the proceeding, not included in (a) or (b) above;

(d) All writings, including, but not limited to, reports of mental, physical and blood examinations and things which the party then proposes to offer in evidence;

(e) Any other writing or thing which is relevant and which would be admissible in evidence;

(f) Investigative reports made by or on behalf of the agency or other party pertaining to the subject matter of the proceeding, to the extent that these reports (1) contain the names and addresses of witnesses or of persons having personal knowledge of the acts, omissions or events which are the basis for the proceeding, or (2) reflect matters perceived by the investigator in the course of his or her investigation, or (3) contain or include by attachment any statement or writing described in (a) to (e), inclusive, or summary thereof.

For the purpose of this section, "statements" include written statements by the person signed or otherwise authenticated by him or her, stenographic, mechanical, electrical or other recordings, or transcripts thereof, of oral statements by the person, and written reports or summaries of these oral statements.

Nothing in this section shall authorize the inspection or copying of any writing or thing which is privileged from disclosure by law or otherwise made confidential or protected as the attorney's work product.

SECTION 11507.7: Petition to compel discovery; Order; Sanctions

(a) Any party claiming the party's request for discovery pursuant to Section 11507.6 has not been complied with may serve and file with the administrative law judge a motion to compel discovery, naming as respondent the party refusing or failing to comply with Section 11507.6. The motion shall state facts showing the respondent party failed or refused to comply with Section 11507.6, a description of the matters sought to be discovered, the reason or reasons why the matter is discoverable under that section, that a reasonable and good faith attempt to contact the respondent for an informal resolution of the issue has been made, and the ground or grounds of respondent's refusal so far as known to the moving party.

(b) The motion shall be served upon respondent party and filed within 15 days after the respondent party first evidenced failure or refusal to comply with Section 11507.6 or within 30 days after request was made and the party has failed to reply to the request, or within another time provided by stipulation, whichever period is longer.

(c) The hearing on the motion to compel discovery shall be held within 15 days after the motion is made, or a later time that the administrative law judge may on the judge's own motion for good cause determine. The respondent party shall have the right to serve and file a written answer or other response to the motion before or at the time of the hearing.

(d) Where the matter sought to be discovered is under the custody or control of the respondent party and the respondent party asserts that the matter is not a discoverable matter under the provisions of Section 11507.6, or is privileged against disclosure under those provisions, the administrative law judge may order lodged with it matters provided in subdivision (b) of Section 915 of the Evidence Code and examine the matters in accordance with its provisions.

(e) The administrative law judge shall decide the case on the matters examined in camera, the papers filed by the parties, and such oral argument and additional evidence as the administrative law judge may allow.

(f) Unless otherwise stipulated by the parties, the administrative law judge shall no later than 15 days after the hearing make its order denying or granting the motion. The order shall be in writing setting forth the matters the moving party is entitled to discover under Section 11507.6. A copy of the order shall forthwith be served by mail by the administrative law judge upon the parties. Where the order grants the motion in whole or in part, the order shall not become effective until 10 days after the date the order is served. Where the order denies relief to the moving party, the order shall be effective on the date it is served.
