GAVIN NEWSOM, GOVERNOR

A wholesaler license is required by any business that distributes, brokers or transacts the sale or return of dangerous drugs or dangerous devices into or within California to other wholesalers, practitioners or pharmacies. Changes in several sections of California Pharmacy law, specifically relating to the wholesaling of dangerous drugs and devices in California will go into effect January 1, 2006.

The most significant change will be the addition of a $100,000 surety bond made payable to the Pharmacy Board Contingency Fund. This requirement becomes effective January 1, 2006. The specific requirements are highlighted below.

- Any applicant for initial licensure or license renewal as a wholesaler or nonresident wholesaler (formerly referred to as an out-of-state distributor) must submit a surety bond of $100,000 made payable to the Pharmacy Board Contingency Fund.
- In lieu of the bond, applicants may submit other equivalent means of security acceptable to the board, including a standby letter of credit or cash deposit in lieu of bond. These other means of security must be payable to the Pharmacy Board Contingency Fund.
- A single surety bond or other equivalent means of security will cover all licensed sites under common ownership.
- The board may accept a surety bond of $25,000 if the annual gross receipts for the previous tax year are $10 million or less.

Note: A licensee who has posted a $25,000 bond but has been disciplined by any state or federal agency or issued an administrative fine under California Pharmacy Law may be required to submit a $100,000 surety bond.

Exception: Certain manufacturers licensed with the FDA who are also licensed as wholesalers or nonresident wholesalers by the California State Board of Pharmacy to distribute exclusively their own product in California are exempt from these requirements.

The exact language for the Business and Professions Code sections dealing with the bonding requirements can be found in California Business and Professions Code sections 4162 and 4162.5. (See the board's Web site under "Pharmacy Law and Regulations.") The board's newsletter, "The Script," for October 2005 discusses some of the changes affecting businesses that wholesale dangerous drugs and devices within and into California.
