A licensee's address of record is the address to which all licenses, permits, license renewal notifications, newsletters, other publications, and correspondence from the Board is mailed. This information is considered public information, pursuant to the Information Practices Act (Civil Code section 1798 et seq.) and the Public Records Act (Government Code section 6250 et seq.).

If you do not want your residence address to be available to the public, you may use an alternate address, such as a post office box number or a personal mailbox (PMB). However, if you change your address of record to a box number, you must also provide your residence address, which will not be available to the public.

If you list your business address as your address of record, remember that all mailings from the Board will go to that address. For some business addresses, receiving personal mail from the Board may be problematic. For example, if you are employed in a large hospital complex with several pharmacies, opportunities for lost mail could exist. Also, using a business address would require you to change your address of record with the Board every time you change your place of employment.
